

Gunung Nuang – 1393 m.

Janda Baik

1- Trek to the waterfall

Walking distance: about 1 to 1 ½ hours per way

Difficulty: ♥♥ / ♥♥♥♥♥

Program: Day Trip

From Zaini GuestHouse you will be sent by 4X4 to the beginning of the trail (about 5 min.), then you will go up to cross the famous ginger crops before reaching the edge of the jungle where you will have another 45 min. walk to get to the fresh water of the waterfall. After bathing and enjoying the surroundings, you will be back to Zaini GuestHouse.

Price: RM 25 per person with a minimum of 10 pax

The journey includes:

- 1 or 2 guides according to the number of participants
- Transport
- First Aid
- 1 hot drink

A traditional jungle lunch can be organised (rice cooked in the bamboo, fried fresh water fish, vegetables from the jungle...) on request.

2- Camping nearby the waterfall at the mountain base

Walking distance: about 1 to 1 ½ hours per way

Difficulty: ♥♥ / ♥♥♥♥♥

Program: 2 days / 1 night

From Zaini GuestHouse you will be sent by 4X4 to the beginning of the trail (about 5 min.), then you will go up to cross the famous ginger crops before reaching the edge of the jungle where you will have another 45 min. walk to get to the fresh water of the waterfall. There the camp will be set up. After resting, bathing, fishing, enjoying the surroundings and taking many pictures, you will be served a typical in-the-jungle dinner around a fire camp. A night walk can be organised. The next day, clear the camp after breakfast and back to Zaini GuestHouse.

Price: RM150 per person with a minimum of 10 pax

The journey includes:

- 2 or 3 guides according to the number of participants
- Transport
- First Aid
- Food (3 meals) and drinks
- All Camping equipment (except sleeping bag and torchlight)

3- Camping at the waterfall and hiking to the Nuang mountain summit

Walking distance: about 3 to 4 hours per way

Difficulty: ♥♥♥♥♥/♥♥♥♥♥

Program: 2 days / 1 night – or – 3 days / 2 nights

From Zaini GuestHouse you will be sent by 4X4 to the beginning of the trail (about 5 min.), then you will go up to cross the famous ginger crops before reaching the edge of the jungle where you will have another 45 min. walk to get to the fresh water of the waterfall. There the camp will be set up. After resting, bathing, fishing, enjoying the surroundings and taking many pictures, you will be served a typical in-the-jungle dinner around a fire camp. The next day, after breakfast, hiking to the Nuang mountain summit where you can catch a view of Kuala Lumpur on the other side. Relax at the top, have a collation then back to the camp and (add one night) back to Zaini GuestHouse.

Price: RM180 per person with a minimum of 10 pax (for the 1 night only option)

The journey includes:

- 3 or 4 guides according to the number of participants
- Transport
- First Aid
- Food (3 meals- tea break, dinner, breakfast, lunch) and drinks
- All Camping equipment (except sleeping bag and torchlight)

